term of that year and throughout the session of 1901-'2.

Built Up School.

He then took charge of a two-room school at Alberane. Albemarle county. It then had eighty or ninety pupils. During his five years in charge it here came a graded high school, with 225 pupils, in which courses were given which admitted direct into the University of Virginia.

During these five summers Mr. Settle was an instructor in the Front Royal Summer Normal, and for four years delivered jectures at the Winchester Normal. Last summer he was sassistant conductor of the Winchester institution, His lectures were on the subjects of "Agriculture in Virginia."

Leaving Alberene. Mr. Settle returned to the university, where he has spent the past three sessions, graduating in June of this year with the degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of laws. He was active in college life, especially in oratorical and debating work. He won the debater's medal one year and was a member of the debating team which defeated Johns Hopkins University.
